ST. THOMAS . . . one of the U. S. Virgin Islands acquired by purchase from Denmark in 1918 . . . The Capital, Charlotte Amalie, still reflects much of its Danish past. There are many points famed for historic and scenic interest . . . Bluebeard's Tower, Drake's Seat and Magens Bay.

SAN JUAN . . . Capital of Puerto Rico . . . one of the oldest cities in the Western Hemisphere, the old Spanish architecture of archways, columns and patios blending with the new American style buildings. La Fortaleza, official residence of the Governor, dates back to 1533.

BERMUDA . . . British since the first settlement in 1612 . . . has the world's oldest Colonial Parliament . . . the islands are about 20 square miles in area and consist of coral limestone and sands based on volcanic peaks.
